Make an impact!

Tutor.

The Carnegie Center hosts an award-winning, on-site tutoring program supporting over 200 students and their dedicated tutors! Learn more about becoming part of the tutoring team by contacting Carol Jordan at tutoring@carnegiecenterlex.org or 859-254-4175, ext. 22.

Volunteer.

Use your hours to empower! Volunteer opportunities include Carnegie Clubs, monthly Family Fun & Learning Nights, Carnegie Classics and other special events, and more. Contact Erica Cooke at erica@carnegiecenterlex.org for more information.

Donate.

By making a contribution to the Carnegie Center, you can make an impact that resounds through a person's lifetime by giving the gift only learning can provide: opportunity. Contributions are tax-deductible. Visit carnegiecenterlex.org/donate to learn more about how you can make a difference.

The Carnegie Center for Literacy & Learning empowers people to explore and express their voices through imaginative learning and the literary arts.
